FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

BARAKS RECEIVES AWARD

CHARLESTON, IL--Bradley J. Baraks, son of Alfred and Barb Baraks of Geneseo, is the recipient of a John Henry Award from the American Society for Quality Control.

A recent Eastern Illinois University graduate, Baraks was selected based on his outstanding potential to contribute to the quality sciences field. Baraks received a Bachelor of Science degree from Eastern in May, where he majored in industrial technology with an option in manufacturing.

Baraks is a 1988 graduate of J.D. Darnell High School in Geneseo.

Eastern, located in Charleston, places its highest priority on teaching in its classrooms and laboratories, supplemented by strong academic support services.
